Re: Important Notice - International Kung Fu Federation (IKFF) determined as conflicting organization

Dear President
Dear Secretary General

In accordance with Article 11.4 of the IWUF constitution, please be advised that the IWUF Executive Committee has determined that the International Kung Fu Federation ("IKFF") is a conflicting international organization.

Chaired by Mr. Fu Biao, the above organization (www.ikffm.com) is registered in Hong Kong and headquartered at Beijing Shaolin Martial Arts School, No. 386 Changping Road, Dewai Xisanqi Hui Long Guan, Beijing, China.

All Continental Federations, National Federations, Associate Members, and their respective Executive Board members, officers, officials and athletes, without exception, are hereby prohibited from participating in IKFF activities, holding any official or unofficial positions in or associated with IKFF, or lending support to IKFF in any way, directly or indirectly. Each Continental Federation, National Federation and Associate Member are directed to take all necessary steps to execute and enforce this prohibition.

Any violation of this Article 11.4 or this Notification will result in appropriate sanctions by IWUF against individuals and their National Federations including, but not limited to, suspension of IWUF membership, removal from IWUF official positions, and exclusion from participation in events organized, sponsored, or sanctioned by IWUF and/or Continental Federations, National Federations or Associate Members.

Thank you for your attention.
